review 1: Jamie is my favorite of all the Otherworld characters but I didn't think this novella made her justice. I would appreciate more a real horror story with real victims and an actual killer! This was kind of a let down, though I did appreciate Kelley having Jamie hold her own without Jeremy swiping in to save the day.

It continued for thirteen novels, introducing other supernatural characters—“witches, ghosts, necromancers, half-demons”and spinning off to their stories, and expanding the series into a multi-narrator fantasy world. Past characters continued to appear in guest roles and often returned to narrate new novels or short fiction.
