So now Will stood patiently alone on the windy Grey platform of the small station of Tywyn, in a thin drizzle of October rain, writing while two men in the navy-blue railway uniform argued earnestly in Welsh. One of them was small and wizened, gnome-like; the other had soft, squashy look like a man made of dough. The gnome caught sight of Will.

6. In The Grey King, Will is searching for a golden harp, one of four essential Things of Power that he needs in order to save the world from evil. Susan Cooper loves Shakespeare, Arthurian legend, Celtic mythology, quests, and many other types of folklore. Perhaps, if teens wrote this series today the four things of power would be very different.
