A clock is an instrument used to measure, keep, and indicate time. The clock is one of the oldest human inventions, meeting the need to measure intervals of time shorter than the natural units: the day, the lunar month, and the year. Devices operating on several physical processes have been used over the millennia. Some predecessors to the modern clock may be considered as "clocks" that are ...

Here's the History Behind Tissot Watches. Tissot has been manufacturing luxury watches since 1853. The original company was founded as a comptoir d'etablissement, which means that an independent network of workers would create different parts of each timepiece at home. Then they would be assembled once brought together so the timepiece could be sold.
