most encouraging and faith-producing times in our spiritual lives. God wants us to have the kind of faith that continues to hope, and dream, and ask him for things. He does give good gifts and we believe he will show himself to us as a community as we join together in risking to ask for more. That is why we are doing Leap of Faith.

Kierkegaard and Faith Kierkegaard's conception of faith was not congruent with the mainstream view held by most religious people. Kierkegaard has been known as the "Christian Socrates" because of the way he challenged traditional beliefs like Socrates did. Kierkegaard's faith is one of an individualistic re-choosing of faith in the impossible.

108 The Leap of Faith in expected ill will, and an increase in trust presumes that roles in tempo-rary systems are clearâ€™ (p. 173). When people deal with each other more as roles than as individuals, they can trust routinely. In other words, the natural attitude in temporary teams may be to comply with the usual roles and routines.
