They all appear slowly and shrouded in mystery, leaving readers with a curiosity and desire to know more. With solid prose, beautiful scenery and brilliant characters, Antani’s first novel will give readers a heavy book-hangover at its conclusion.

The Leaving of Things | Portland Book Review

THE LEAVING OF THINGS feels less like a novel and more like a series of essays that have been bound with earnest, interstitial threads. Vikram spends a high percentage of his time listening to R.E.M. tapes on his walkman while staring at poetic vistas and noisy, traffic-clogged boulevards.
