Life on the Lighter Side viewed with a dash of humor and sprinkled with sarcasm. Letâ€™s Not Lose Our Heads This Christmas. He was more than a figurehead. He was part of a village. Who would have known how weak he was â€“ not me. He was proven. He had been part of our Christmas for over 25 years. That means he had survived my four children with ...

Archaeology emphatically has its lighter side, though this is not always recognized by the lay public. The antiquary of the past was looked upon as a musty old bore—the reverse of entertaining company, while the modern archaeologist is apt to be depicted in the humorous press as an immature individual of either sex, dull, myopic and dowdy.
